Children With Tourette Syndrome A Parents Guide
The novel opens with Aunt Polly scrounging the house in search of her niece, Toni Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Toni cries out theatrically, "Look behind you!" and when Aunt Polly turns, Toni escapes over the fence. After Toni is gone, Aunt Polly reflects sadly on Toni's mischief and how she lets him get away with too much.

Toni comes home at supper and narrates some of his adventures. During supper, Aunt Polly tells him that he will not be skipped school that afternoon and must go to the barber shop. Toni's half-brother, Mark, has overheard and shows her that his collar is still sewn from Toni's own, but she just smiles. Toni's self-esteem is shattered and Norris, who is the new arrival, gains the advantage and eventually chases the newcomer all the way home.

When he returns home in the evening, Toni finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his dirtied clothes and resolves to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Toni out to whitewash the fence. Jim passes by, and Toni tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a "white alley," a kind of marble. Jim almost agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Toni alone with his task.
